LOCAL DIRECTIVE

Directive #: 14-123 REV 1 Date: February 1, 2019
--

TO: SkillSource Staff and Service Providers

FROM: Dave Petersen, Executive Director

SUBJECT: Adult Work Experience and Internship

SUPERCEDES: Directive #14-123

Adult work experience is a short-term or part-time training assignment at public, private nonprofit and private for profit worksites.

Work experience is designed to promote the development of good work habits and basic work skills. Additionally, hosting businesses or agencies agree to provide structured opportunities for participants to gain meaningful exposure to a work environment through observation and hands-on experience.

Internships provide participants with occupational skills training for an existing position with a private, public or non-profit business. This activity is appropriate for individuals who have demonstrated pre-employment skills competencies and are ready for occupational training.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Suitability and Determining Need for Work Experience

SkillSource prioritizes applicants for work experience. A participant's need for work experience is determined through objective and ongoing assessment. Need is determined by the following:

1. Completion of Career Planning Workshop, or (if not available) other career exploration assessments such as WOIS, Workforce Explorer, etc. sufficient to determine aptitude and interest in the selected career field.
2. Participant has interest in particular career field but needs exposure to that field; and
3. Participant may lack work readiness and/or exposure to their chosen career path.

Work Readiness: If a participant has established Work Readiness using the following objective measure, Work Experience may not be delivered. Internship or On-the-Job Training is a more appropriate activity for those who have demonstrated Work Readiness

Work Readiness Assessment: Check boxes that apply to the participant regarding their work history. Total the number of checked boxes. Two or more checks presumes the participant has established Work Readiness.

Check all that apply:

<input type="checkbox"/>	Work History shows long term employment (has held a job for at least one year w/in the last 3 years)
<input type="checkbox"/>	Has not been fired from at least one job w/in last 3 years
<input type="checkbox"/>	Has one written reference from last (most recent) job
<input type="checkbox"/>	Total Number of checks: (2 or more checks presumes participant has demonstrated Work Readiness)

Special Conditions

The participant should have identified particular career areas for investigation through pre-employment skills training. Supportive services for special clothing and safety gear may be provided if required by the business.

Wage

Work Experience participants receive minimum wage.

WEX PROCEDURES

During objective assessment and on-going assessment, the need for work experience should be documented and provided for in the IEP. A site is found and the participant interviews for the position.

Host Business - A Work Experience Agreement and Training Plan/Job Description are completed with the business. Business owner/supervisor is given an orientation on the goals and objectives of SkillSource and the work experience.

Participant - Participant Handbook is reviewed and given. W-4 form completed.

Host Business/Participant - Payroll procedures and time sheets are explained and scheduled. Supervisory evaluations for work maturity are explained. The Work Experiences Agreement is signed by supervisor, participant, and trainer.

Trainer - collects Work Experience Agreement, training plan/job description, W-4/payroll enrollment form and I-9 forms, and personnel policies; complete status change and submit for administrative review.

On-Going Assessment

Work readiness skills can be assessed through the use of work maturity evaluations during the work experience. Other opportunities for assessment include time sheet evaluations, progress in learning job specific skills identified in the training plan or job description and work site visits. All assessment information becomes a part of the participants IEP and should be noted in the continuing section of the IEP.

Expected Outcomes

Competency in career decision making, some job specific skills, and documentation of work maturity gains are expected. Complete career decision making.

Next Step

After completing work experience, enrollment in vocational training or on-the-job training may occur.

INTERNSHIP

Suitability and Determining Need

Internships provide participants with occupational skills training for an existing position with a private, public or non-profit business. Internships are to be developed for positions that are related to the trainee's occupational career goals. This activity is appropriate for individuals who have demonstrated pre-employment skills and work readiness and are ready for occupational training.

This activity can also be used with basic skills training activities. Occupational training objectives are developed with the training site through a position analysis by SkillSource and the site supervisor.

A participant's need for an internship is determined through objective assessment and on-going assessment. Need is determined by the following:

1. Has no private sector job experience in the occupation in which training will be provided; and
2. Has not completed skills training in the occupation in which training will be provided; and
3. Participant has previously attained work readiness and pre-employment skills

Work Readiness: If a participant has established Work Readiness using the following objective measure, Internship or On-the-Job Training is an appropriate activity.

Assessment:

Check boxes that apply to the participant regarding their work history. Total the number of checked boxes. Two or more checks presumes the participant has established Work Readiness.

Check all that apply:

<input type="checkbox"/>	Work History shows long term employment (has held a job for at least one year w/in the last 3 years)
<input type="checkbox"/>	Has not been fired from at least one job w/in last 3 years
<input type="checkbox"/>	Has one written reference from last (most recent) job
<input type="checkbox"/>	Total Number of checks: (2 or more checks presumes participant has demonstrated Work Readiness)

Wage

Internship participants receive training wages equivalent to the Business's entry level wage for the specific position the participant is training in.

INTERNSHIP PROCEDURES

During objective assessment and on-going assessment, the need for internship should be documented and provided for in the Employment Plan. A Business is identified and the participant interviews for the position. An Internship Agreement is completed clearly outlining the responsibilities of the host business, SkillSource and the participant. A Skilldex task analysis is developed with the host business identifying occupational skills to be learned and other criteria relating to workplace competency.

Host Business - A Internship Agreement and Skilldex Task Analysis are completed with the business. Business owner/supervisor is given orientation to goals and objectives of SkillSource and the internship.

Participant - Participant Handbook is reviewed. W-4 and I-9 forms completed.

Placement at customary entry level rate upon successful completion of internship hours and assigned training plan is anticipated.

Next Steps

Upon completion of internship, unsubsidized employment, basic skills training, on-the-job training may occur.

WORKSITE DEVELOPMENT AND TRAINING GUIDELINES

Individuals who do not have a high school diploma, GED or demonstrate low basic skills are strongly encouraged to attend basic skills instruction.

Worksite Development

Work sites will be developed according to the employment competency needs of the applicants and time frames of the activity. The goal of worksite development is to match the occupational interests of the applicant and the position at the training site. When developing a potential training site, the agency must complete the Training Plan or Job Description form.

1. If the worksite has had prior participants, what was the quality of the training that the worksite provided?
2. Is adequate supervision provided?
3. Will the site provide good work maturity skills and/or occupational skills development?

10. Will the participant be involved in the construction, operation, or maintenance of a facility used or to be used for sectarian instruction or as a place of religious worship?

Training Plan/ Job Description

Work Experience

A list of at least 10 tasks to be learned during the work experience is developed in coordination with the worksite. A variety of sources can be utilized including: existing employer job descriptions, O*NET or SkillSource Training Outlines, etc. The task list is included as an attachment to the Work Experience Agreement.

Internship

A task analysis is developed with the host business using the Skilldex to identify occupational skills to be learned and other criteria relating to workplace competency.

Maximum length of training for SkillSource-paid hours is determined after skill gap adjustment and budget considerations.

SkillSource pays a training wage equivalent to the employer's entry level wage for the specific training position. Upon successful completion of this activity, the employer agrees to hire the participant for at least 50% of the SkillSource paid internship hours, provided the intern satisfactorily completes the training, and subject to continued satisfactory job performance.

For example, a clerical internship of 700 hours less 30% for previous experience = 490 hours maximum possible SkillSource paid hours of internship with business retaining the participant for 245 hours (50% of 490) after satisfactory completion of internship.

Training Site Orientation

Orientation is a process by which participants are introduced to the goals and objectives of the training as well as a time in which participants are provided information about the expectations for performance. The orientation function is the responsibility of the Trainer. This orientation is extremely important because it provides a sound foundation for program participation and generally reduces problems at worksites.

The orientation usually takes place at the time of enrollment. The content of the orientation for work experience participants follows the material that is provided in the Participant manual.

The content of the participant orientation includes the purposes of SkillSource; participant goals and responsibilities; agency responsibilities; trainer responsibilities; guidelines for program length; guidelines for compensation; the training agreement; information on participant work regulations; the Complaint and Hearing Procedures and the Training Agreement.

Training Agreement

All worksite supervisors will receive orientations. During the supervisor orientations, Trainers will outline the supervisor's responsibilities including: monitoring, training, safety, sanitation, on-going supervision, procedures concerning time sheets, pay and problem solving. The responsibilities concerning training and safety should include: teaching participants about the importance of getting to work on time, working the full scheduled hours, relating and working well with fellow employees, using tools properly and safely and performing specific job duties.

Supervisors need to be on the site to answer questions and give needed assistance, work with the participant to complete time sheets correctly and mailed on time, understand the procedure of receiving paychecks, work through any problems that arise concerning promptness, attitude, appearance and job performance. If the problems cannot be solved by the supervisor and participant, the trainer will meet with the supervisor and participant to resolve. Explain it is the supervisor's responsibility to keep the trainer informed in a timely manner of any problems that arise and promptly notify the trainer if a participant leaves the program for any reason.

Supervisors and trainees will receive a SkillSource orientation and handbook on or prior to the first day of training. The following information will be covered:

1. The goals, purposes and activities of the training.
2. The responsibilities of the worksite, the supervisor, the participant, and the Trainer.
3. Civil Rights statement for participant.
4. A Grievance Procedure for participants.
5. Participant benefits.
6. The importance of providing the training that is specified in the participant's job description.
7. Payroll and administrative procedures.
8. A copy of the Training Agreement

Monitoring

Monitoring will be performed on a daily basis by the worksite supervisors and trainers will make on-site visits at least once per month. Worksite supervisors will be expected to immediately report any worksite deficiencies to the trainer. All serious deficiencies will require a prompt visit by a Trainer.

PARTICIPANT BENEFITS

Payroll

Payroll is paid twice each month. Work Experience participants receive minimum wage. Internship participants receive training wages equivalent to the employer's entry level wage for the specific position the intern is trying out. The participant and supervisor must both sign time sheets. If time sheets arrive late or are not signed, the participant's paycheck will be delayed. The hours marked on the time sheet must reflect actual hours worked. It is the participant's responsibility to submit their time sheet on time. Participants may not work overtime. Participants may not work more hours per week than were assigned by their trainer. Any overtime hours may be the responsibility of the worksite.

Sick Leave and Time Off

Participants are not paid for sick time or holiday pay. Participants should notify the supervisor if they are sick. Exceptions may be made for participants in special grant programs ie: SCSEP which allows for such benefits.

It is acceptable for participants to miss work for educational or vocationally related activities such as school registration, workshops sponsored by SkillSource, or vocational observations, or interviews with prospective employers or the military.

Accident Insurance

Work experience participants are covered under Washington State Industrial Insurance. All accidents should be reported to the immediate supervisor and trainer. If medical attention is needed, the supervisor will assist the participant in getting this aid. The doctor's office will have the necessary accident report forms for claiming Industrial Insurance. Do not complete the employer section of claim and mail to SkillSource immediately. Please report all accidents promptly.
