LOCAL DIRECTIVE

Directive #: 18-168 (Rev 1) Date: March 1, 2019

TO: SkillSource Staff and Service Providers

FROM: Dave Petersen, Executive Director

SUBJECT: Youth Project Based Learning Achievement Incentives

SUPERSEDES: Directive: 18-168 - Youth Work-based Incentives

Incentives may be earned by WIOA eligible youth and be awarded for work-based learning achievement during project based learning.. Work-based learning incentives are not a wage, but are payments for achievement outlined prior to the activity. Wages are paid for standard Work Experience and Internships.

To qualify for an incentive the following must be documented:

- 1. Workplace Conduct Standard: of 2 or higher during the payment period
- 2. Workplace Attendance: 80% attendance for hours scheduled during the payment period.
- 3. Satisfactory Classroom Progress: In order to receive incentive payment for work-based learning achievement, the student must also meet satisfactory progress in class as defined by school policy.
- 4. Work Related Assessment: Student may choose one of the following for each payment period, but must choose at least two different assessments over the life of the project. The work related assessment section may be customized as needed for each project, but hours per payment may not be less than 30 hours. a). Research Paper: One page paper researching the occupation or industry, covering topics such as education requirements, earning potential, local and state demand, etc.
b) Presentation: a 3-5 minute presentation to peers with visual aids (ie: PowerPoint) or other covering similar topics above.
c) Prove-it! assessment related to the occupation or industry passed with a 75% or better. Other written assessments may be used but must be pre-approved by Managing Director.

Payments & Incentive Amounts

If a student meets the attendance and conduct criteria, they may earn incentive payment for workbased learning achievement. The total amount available may vary per project, contract, or grant, etc. The incentive amounts and requirements must be outlined on the incentive Payment Form and Agreement signed by the participant and trainer prior to the start of the work-based activity (ie, project, internship, etc.) Work-based incentives earned may not exceed $500 per participant in any program year

Documentation

Copies of assessment test, research paper and presentation must be submitted with incentive payment form and filed in the participant file. The Incentive payment form is signed by all parties and submitted to accounting for payment.
